Project Gutenberg is one of the largest sources for free books on the web, with over 30,000

downloadable free books available in a wide variety of formats. Project Gutenberg is the oldest (and quite possibly the largest) library on the web, with literally hundreds of thousands free books available for download. The vast majority of books at Project Gutenberg are released in English, but there are other languages available. Overdrive is the cleanest, fastest, and most legal way to access millions of ebooks—not just ones in the public domain, but even recently released mainstream titles. There is one hitch though: you'll need a valid and active public library card. Overdrive works with over 30,000 public libraries in over 40 different countries worldwide. The eReader Cafe has listings every day for free Kindle books and a few bargain books. Daily email subscriptions and social media profiles are also available if you don't want to check their site every day. Ebooks are available as PDF, EPUB, Kindle and plain text files, though not all titles are available in all formats. Note that some of the "free" ebooks listed on Centsless Books are only free if you're part of Kindle Unlimited, which may not be worth the money. It would be nice if we're able to download free e-book and take it with us. That's why we've again crawled deep into the Internet to compile this list of 20 places to download free e-books for your use. eReaderIQ may look like your typical free eBook site but they actually have a lot of extra features that make it a go-to place when you're looking for free Kindle books. Established in 1978, O'Reilly Media is a world renowned platform to download books, magazines and tutorials for free. Even though they started with print publications, they are now famous for digital books. The website features a massive collection of eBooks in categories like, IT industry, computers, technology, etc. You can download the books in PDF format, however, to get an access to the free downloads you need to sign up with your name and email address.
