stories about golf. An amusing creative collection of observations of the game of golf showing golf is very similar to life itself with all its unexpected victories, miracle shots or disastrous results from perfect shots - like Heaven and Hell in one. Bobby Jones said, Golf is the closest game to the game we call life. You get bad breaks from good shots; you get good breaks from bad shots - but you have to play the ball where it lies. Most of us at some point or another have walked off the 18th green swearing to give up the game after an embarrassing disastrous round only to say, Okay when asked to play next week. Here's just one excerpt: A wife is interested in taking up golf and visits a large retail golf store with her husband to pick out a set of golf clubs. She is amazed at the vast selection on display. Dear, look at all this equipment! How am I supposed to pick out the right set of clubs? Finding the right set of clubs is like finding a great wife, replied the husband. What! Are you comparing me to a set of golf clubs? I mean you know right away when you found the right one, replied the husband. Nice recovery, she said. Thanks. - Rick Newell club would allow a three-year-old on the course. Phil persisted in begging his dad to play and Phil Sr. finally gave in. Three-year-old Phil loved it and moved along the course well except when they came to the 18th hole which Phil didn't want to play since it was the final hole and that meant he couldn't play anymore. Here's a sample joke: There once was a farmer whose wife had died and left him with three beautiful teenage daughters. They lived next to a golf course and many young men who played the course noticed the daughters and many young men sought eagerly to date them. All the young men had heard the beautiful teenage daughters went out on dates with different young men every Saturday. They had their pick of suitors and were choosy but loved it. But, the farmer would stand at the door with his shotgun, making it clear to their suitors he wanted no shenanigans from them. Another Saturday night came around. About 7 p.m., there was a knock on the door. The farmer answered the door with shotgun in hand. The young golfer said, Hi, my name's Joe. I'm here for Flo. I'm taking her to the show. Is she ready to go? The farmer thought Joe was very cool and told them to enjoy themselves. A few minutes later, another knock was heard. A second golfer appeared and said, Hi, I'm Eddie. I'm here for Betty. I'm taking her for spaghetti. I hope she's ready. The farmer laughed and thought Eddie was very cool and told them to enjoy themselves. A few minutes after that, a third knock was heard. Hi, I'm Chuck... The farmer shot him. Great for Parties! "I'd buy joke books and try doing them at school; I always had jokes. That would be my go-to thing at parties: I'd be able to get through them if I just told enough jokes. Otherwise, I wouldn't end up talking to anybody." - Drew Carey Review from Alexander V. Ph.D. "I really enjoyed this book and I'm giving it high five. Of course, not all jokes in there gave me the jolt but there were many others which after reading still made me grin and giggle to myself like a doped Halloween pumpkin for quite a while. I have the suspicion some people around though I must have gone loony from too much work. So, the five stars are meant for those jokes. The jokes cover a broad range of topics and the reader will find a good one for just about any situation and conversation which will appeal for just about everyone.
